Hi Jim,
This is good news! Thanks for the advance notice.
We'll be ready to go when you give us the word.

I do understand that things can change so I'll wait to more from you.

Thanks,
Sandi

There has still not been a determination issue by the Judges in the hearings from earlier this year. However, my client has decided that we still need to do a 2017 survey, so they have given me the go ahead to get started in preparing the questionnaires based on the design we used last year! We will therefore be starting to get things put together as quickly as possible. I doubt we'll have anything for you to start working on until mid-November, but wanted to let you know that it looks like we'll be doing a survey after all.

Please also be aware that things could still change if the Judges come out with a decision in the next couple of weeks. Nevertheless, thank you for your patience with this very frustrating process, and happy to say that we are off and running for now.

Jim
